ROBBERY ASSAULT IN LINCOLN

UPDATE

Lincoln, CA. November 19, 2008 — On Saturday, November 15th, Lincoln Police Officers responded to a possible robbery in progress at the Holiday Inn Express located at 155 Ferrari Ranch Road. Officers determined that a hotel clerk had been assaulted receiving minor injuries, and that property from the establishment had been taken including a 2002 Ford Holiday Inn Express shuttle van.

As a result of information obtained in this investigation Lincoln Police Detectives have identified the suspect and obtained a warrant for the arrest of 23-year-old Eric Arredondo for robbery, assault with a deadly weapon, auto theft and related charges.

Arredondo is a Hispanic Male 6'-1", 250 lbs., black hair, brown eyes (see picture below). Anyone with information related to this case or the whereabouts of Eric Arredondo is urged to contact detective Jason Maschmeyer at the Lincoln Police Department Investigations Division, (916) 645-4040. You can also provide information and remain anonymous by calling Placer County Crime Stoppers at 1-800-923-8191.
