Traffic Collision

LINCOLN, CA, Nov. 20, 2008 -- At 5:45 a.m. today Lincoln Police officers were dispatched to the intersection of Joiner & Sterling Parkway for a report of single vehicle (motorcycle) collision involving an Elk Grove Police Unit.

Officers arrived on scene and found an Elk Grove Police Department motor officer had lost control of his vehicle as he turned on to Sterling Parkway from eastbound Joiner Parkway. The officer and vehicle slid on the pavement for approximately 45 feet from the point of impact before coming to rest. The officer was treated on scene by responding emergency medical personnel then transported to Sutter Roseville Hospital for further examination.

The cause of the collision is still under investigation.

For additional information, contact Lieutenant Paul Shelgren at (916) 645-4040.
